LESOURD GENEALOGY

The following information was obtained from Mrs. Belle Le Sourd Heil of Parsons Kansas.

About the year 1725 in France, John Peter Le Sourd and Hannah Provost were united in marriage. There were born to the union two children - John and Mary. John in his youth learned the tailor trade. During the Revolutionary War he came to America under Gen. Lafayette to help battle for American Independence. He refused to return to his native country and deserted Gen. Lafayette's army, giving as his reason that he had met and fallen in love with a young lady, while campaigning in Virginia. Her name was Mary Curtis. Soon after the war they were married and settled in Baltimore County, Maryland, where he continued to work at his trade for a number of years. With the assistance of his wife, they soon accumulated means enough to procure them a comfortable home. He died at the age of 63 years on Aug. 10, 1822. His wife died April 12, 1851, aged 87 years. Both were buried near Stablersville, Baltimore County, Maryland. To this union there were born ten children, five sons and five daughters. The date and place of marriage of John or Jean Le Sourd is not given, and John or Jean is the ancestor who assisted in establishing American Independence while acting in the capacity of Premier Pilete du Gorsia-Ancestral Paper Maryland Historical Society, Baltimore, Maryland from a late work, Les Combattants Francais de la Guerre Americaine, 1778-1783. Published by United States as Senate Document No. 77, Page 259.

The following history is divided into ten parts, tracing as far as possible, the descendants of the ten children of their French ancestor.

JOSEPH LE SOURD

The Joseph Le Sourd Branch of the Jean Pierre Le Sourd and Mary Curtis Family. Joseph Le Sourd was born in Maryland and was married first to Miss Corbin and second, to Miss Tracy.

Joseph Le Sourd, b. June 12, 1791, m. Miss Corbin, 2nd m., Miss Tracy. Diligent inquiry among the descendants of Jean Pierre Le Sourd and Mary Curtis fails to find any information concerning Joseph Le Sourd.

John Stabler of Baltimore Maryland, now deceased, in a letter written in 1923, stated that he had no recollection of Joseph Le Sourd. He remembered the other children, however, and attended the funeral of their mother, Mary Curtis Le Sourd, who died at the home of the youngest daughter, Hannah, who married Adam Stabler.
